FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
BEST WESTERN MUSIC CAPITAL INN
RECEIVES AWARD FOR QUALITY

BRANSON, MO- The Best Western Music Capital Inn was recently awarded the Best Western International's Director's Award. The Director's Award recognizes Best Western hotels scoring in the top 20 percent of more than 2100 North American properties in cleanliness and maintenance. Hotels must also meet Best Western's requirements for design and high customer service scores to qualify for the distinction.

Chris Myer says, "It is an honor to receive this award. This award not only showcases the quality of our hotels, but the superior service that our staff provides each and every day to our guests."

The Best Western Music Capital Inn was also recently recognized as a Champion Green Award winner. The property demonstrated a commitment to sustaining resources while reducing their carbon footprint.

Located on Branson's Shepherd of the Hills Expressway, across from the Shoji Tabuchi Theater, and within walking distance to several other theaters and restaurants, the Best Western Music Capital Inn is a popular destination in Branson.
