Branson Best Western Hotels Receive Awards

BRANSON, MO- The Best Western Center Pointe Inn and the Best Western Music Capital Inn are both recipients of prestigious awards from Best Western International.

The Best Western Center Pointe Inn received the 2019 Housekeeping Award. This award showcases the dedication from the staff of the housekeeping department to ensure the best possible stay for each guest. Along with this award, the Best Western Center Pointe Inn has also been a recipient of the Best Western International Director's Award, showcasing the property's commitment to great service.

The Best Western Music Capital Inn was awarded the 2018 Best Western International's Director's Award. This is the fourth time the hotel has received this award. The Best Western International Director's Award recognizes hotels scoring in the top 20 percent of more than 2400 North American properties in cleanliness and maintenance. Hotels must also meet Best Western's requirements for design and high customer service scores to qualify for the distinction. The Best Western Music Capital Inn has also been a recent recipient of the Champion Green Award for their commitment to sustaining resource and has been recognized numerous times by Trip Advisor for quality excellence.

"It is an honor to receive both of these prestigious awards from Best Western International. These awards display the staff's hard work and dedication to providing superior customer service," said Chris Myer, Vice President of Marketing for Myer Hotels.

The Best Western Center Pointe Inn is located in the heart of Branson on Highway 76, next to the Titanic Museum and across from the Clay Cooper Theatre. The Best Western Music Capital Inn is located on Branson's Shepherd of the Hills Expressway, next to the Pierce Arrow Theater, and within walking distance to several other theaters and restaurants.
